Hal An Tow

Take no scorn to wear the horn
It was the crest when you were born
Your father's father wore it
And your father wore it too

Hal an tow, jolly rumbalow
We were up long before the day-o
To welcome in the summer, to welcome in the May-o
For summer is a-coming in, and winter's gone away-o

Robin Hood and Little John
Have both gone to the fair-o
So we will to the merry green wood
To hunt the buck and hare-o

We have brought the budding branch
To blest each hearth and bed-O
For none should lie alone today
But to the woods, instead-O!

God bless aunt Mary Moses
In all her power and might-o
May she bring peace to England
Bring peace by day and night-o
