Master’s Corn

Now master's corn is in the barn
All free from wind and weather
We'll all have a jolly good supper
And we'll all sit down together
We'll drink our master's health
And all of us will keep sober
And when we're done we'll laugh for fun
And the month was called October